LOOKING FOR SPACE

On the road of experience
I'm trying to find my own way
Sometimes I wish that I could fly away
When I think that I'm moving
Suddenly things stand still
I'm afraid 'cause I think they always will

Chorus
And I'm looking for space
And to find out who I am
And I'm looking to know and understand
It's a sweet dream
Sometimes I'm almost there
Sometimes I fly like an eagle and Sometimes I'm deep in despair

All Alone in the universe
Sometimes that's how it seems
I get lost in the sadness and the screams
Then I look in the center
Suddenly everything's clear
I find myself in the sunshine and my dreams

Chorus

On the road of experience
Join in the living day
If there's an answer
It's just it's just that way

Chorus

by John Denver

... AND WE'RE LOOKING FOR SPACE

Though life travels past us
at a constant speed
And one minute we're in complete control and the next totally lost both in ourselves and in others,
We find our entire lives so far have been spent ...
looking for space.

Not space as in:
(SPAS), N^1 the boundless expanse within which all things are contained

but space where we as young adults fit into life.

While students we tend to follow the patterns of our friends
Never really expressing or using our own ideas.

But as time passes, we suddenly become individuals, struggling alone through many experiences that help us to mature

Life to us now is just a stepping stone to the real reality that awaits us.

ACTIVITIES

(THE HOMECOMING (/hom-km-in/n:)
The return of a group of people esp. on a special occasion to place formerly frequented) This year the Whitmore Lake High School homecoming festivities occurred on the 8th day of October nineteen-hundred and seventy-six. The homecoming theme centered on "Futureworld" and each float represented what that class felt the future would be. The float themes were: "TIME for a Victory" (freshmen) "Stairway to a Victory" (sophomore) "Blast off for a Victory" (junior) and the winning float "We compute a Victory" (senior). Congratulations to each class on the floats and a special one to the seniors for a fine job this year.

HOMECOMING 1976: FUTURE WORLD

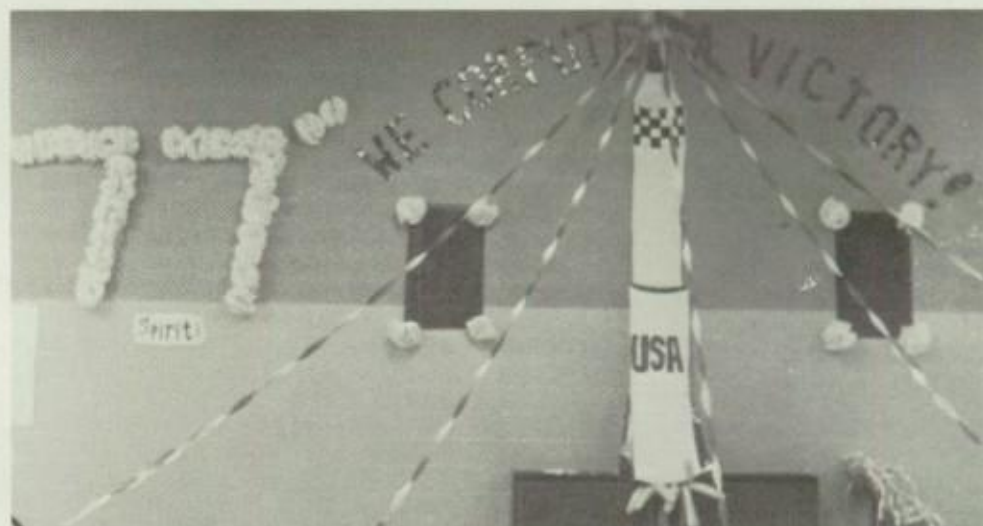

An important part of Homecoming is the Queen and her court. Above left: co-captains of the football team congratulate Terry, Mr. Watkins, Ron Reed, Terry Watkins, Doug Bater, Cheri Harrison (senior rep.), Mr. Fisher and his daughter, Sherry Fisher (senior rep.). Left: Crowning Terry is last year's reigning queen Sharon Philipp. Below left: Underclass representatives Angie Duey (freshman), Amy Winkler (sophomore), and Kim LaBram (junior). Above: A smiling Mr. Watkins and his daughter, Terry, THE 1976-1977 HOME-COMING QUEEN.

HOMECOMING A SUCCESS

Starting the day off was the preparation of the spirit walls. Each class had exactly 2 hours of classtime to work on their individual wall. The Sophomores pulled it off with everything but the kitchen sink on their masterpiece.

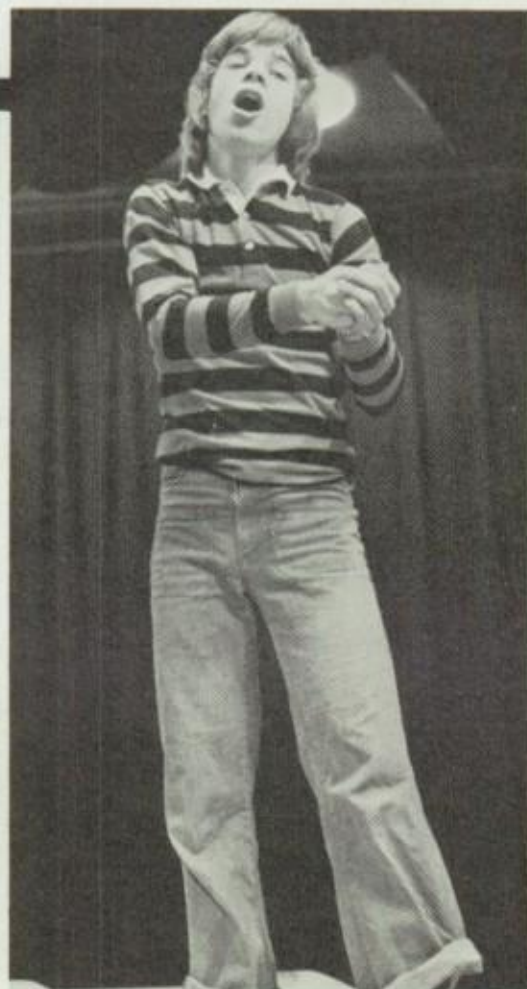

Spirit Week is a popular tradition at Whitmore Lake. From October 4th through October 8th, each day represented a different dress of spirit. For instance, Monday found students in clashing color, Tuesday found students as twins, Wednesday found students covered w/ grease, Thursday found students in class colors and Friday in red and white, for school spirit. Other excitement included the Juniors who won the spirit stick by their show of spirit.

"YOU'RE A GOOD MAN CHARLIE BROWN"

To give more insight on the life and times of Charlie Brown, the play "You're A Good Man Charlie Brown," based on the Peanuts comic strip, was performed April 11 & 12 under the direction of Mrs. Mary Hughes (Below Left).

Through the use of skits, comedy, and singing, the cast showed the audience the problems a five year old faces. Many people helped make the play a success. Two very important people to the production were (Below) Music Director Miss Kathy McClatchey and pianist Louise Harkaway. Although never seen by the audience, many students, faculty and community members contributed their time and effort to the production behind the scenes.

TO GONG OR NOT TO GONG

Top Right: Faculty members perform a song and dance number interpreted for chickens. Far Right: Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Klump advertise a filling station. Middle Left: I. Lefstad, J. Wagner, J. Clay, and P. Ellis provided a choral commercial. Middle Right: The Dave Phillip band received the award for worst act one night. Bottom: Judges Mike Hess, Mrs. Hunt and Mr. Ellis rate an act during the first show.

The Gong Show, one of the top-rated game shows on the tube, was adapted by the acting classes and directed by Mrs. Hughes. The show had its debut May 11 & 12. The acts ranged from legitimate talent to all humor. Also included were "commercial" acts for local businesses whose donations helped support the show. Profits from the show were used to provide $450 to the Community Scholarship Fund and to purchase sound equipment for the drama/music program. The acts each night were different. First prize the first night was won by Kathy Winters and her mother playing accordions. Mike Nakamura won second prize the second night and also the Grand Prize of $23.47.

HONORS ASSEMBLY RECOGNIZES TOP STUDENTS

As always, at the end of each year, the Honors Assembly is held for recognition of those outstanding students who have rated high in academics. Top Left: Mr. Bender congratulates senior Bob Orr for receiving the Science Award. Middle Left: Senior Nina Shishkoff received the Chemistry Award from Mr. Barnes. Top Right and Above: Students are sworn into the Junior and Senior National Honor Societys. Below Left: Students receive recognition for high scores on the ACT entrance exam for college.

STUDENT COUNCIL SPONSORS DONKEY BASKETBALL GAME

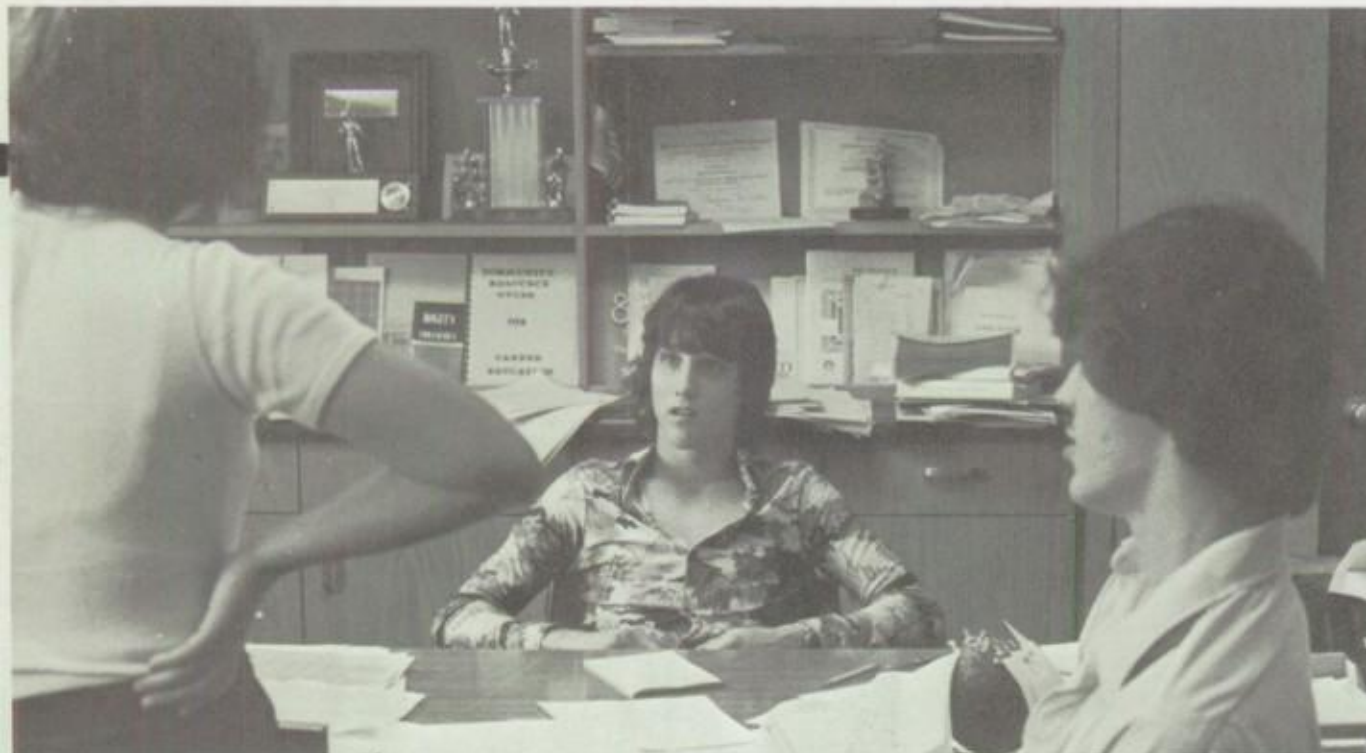

This year's Donkey Basketball Game was a mixture of thrill and talent. Thrill as in who would score first and talent in who could stay on their donkey the longest. Participants were Seniors against Alumni. The Seniors won 18 to 20.

SENIORS TAKE OVER WLHS

For the first time in the life of the Whitmore Lake Schools, the student council sponsored a student takeover day. This involved various students and the administration & faculty switching roles for a day. The students pulled through with A's and most claimed they'd never become teachers. Mr. Ellis, the high school principal, claims the reports from teachers and students that he received were very favorable. He also commented that the 2 men that helped him that day can help him anytime. He indicated his appreciation to Mike Hess & Mark Richmond.

DESTINATION: FREEPORT, BAHAMAS

On April 7, 41 seniors and class sponsors Mrs. Ewart and Mrs. Hunt boarded a DC-9 headed for Freeport, Bahamas. For 7 glorious days the seniors wine and dine, swim and sun and had a great time. To keep themselves busy, various seniors rented motorcycles, toured the beautiful gardens, rode on the catamaran and shopped at the International Bazaar.

ROMA HALL + STUDENTS = JUNIOR/SENIOR PROM

Occasion: Junior/Senior Prom

Time: 7:30 - 1:00 a.m.

Place: Roma Hall, Ann Arbor

Dress: Formal Attire

Entertainment: "The Bandits"

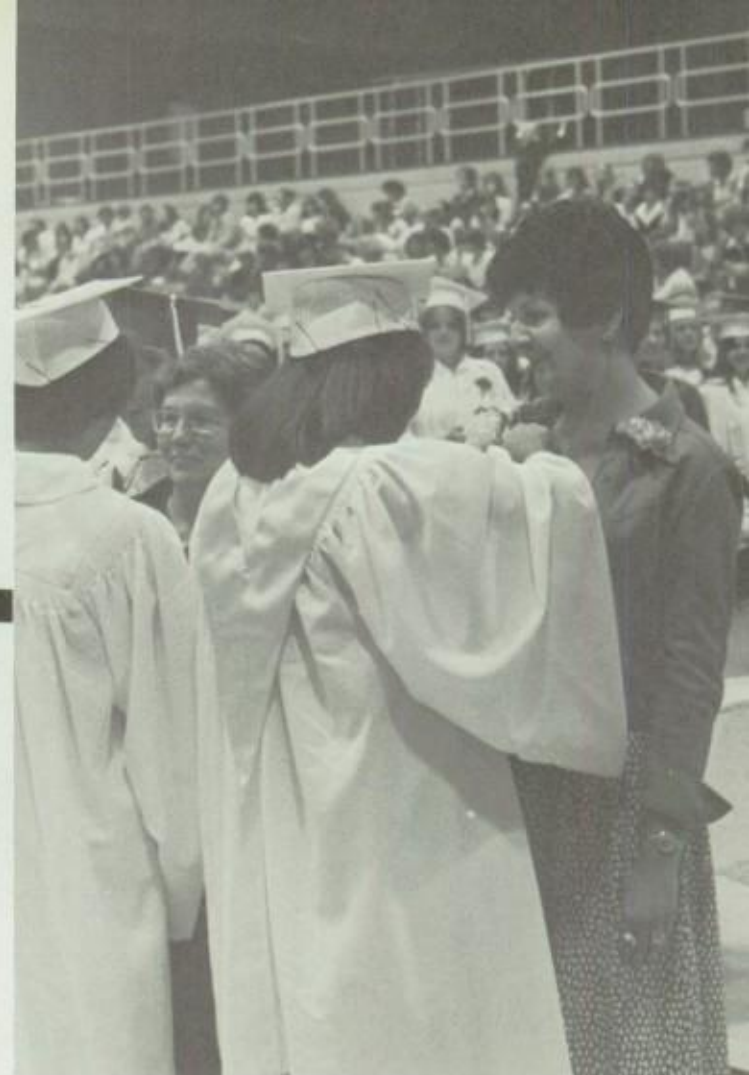

Memories of a night to remember forever...

The final dance commemoration the Senior Year.

Above Left: Ginny Northrup and her date fill their plates with goodies. Left: Mr. Winters and Mrs. Ressler were chosen to read off wills and prophecies at prom. Bottom Left: Other students gather around the buffet at Roma Hall. Above: The entertainment furnished by "The Bandits" kept everyone alive and dancing. Below: More dancing and more romance. Kim Florida and Dale Morris dance along with Ann Fader and Rick Tobias.

GRADUATION: WE'VE ONLY JUST BEGUN

The funny shaped hat, perched precariously on each head. The gowns, making each one look like a mimeographed copy of some out-dated mold that's been used over and over again in the past.

Pomp and Circumstance fills the air and suddenly the lines are moving. Classmates all around you—ones you've cried with, been happy with, grown up with. The past flashes before you and you see the playground, class rings, prom, and all those football and basketball games. Suddenly you're next. Your name and then on to the next. You smile. Your parents in the audience smile. Teachers smile.

"I now present to you the Class of 1977" The turning of the tassel, a symbol of promotion. Congratulations follow from parents and friends. It's the last time you'll all be together. Tears . . . Smiles . . . Hugs . . . Graduation: The START of a new beginning.

ORGANIZATIONS

8th grade Class Officers: Sec., D. Schumann; V. Pres., S. Lowe; Sponsor, Mr. Siamaroski; Treas., D. Richmond. Not Pictured: Pres., K. Hill

UNDERCLASS OFFICERS

Every year each class elects officers, hopefully on the basis of their ability to provide leadership. These officers prepare topics to be discussed at class meetings, plan activities and fund raising projects, and assume responsibility for getting things done. Sophomore officers were camera shy.

9th grade Officers: Sponser, Mrs. Ressler; Pres., C. Dreffs; Treas., M. Hill; Sponsor, Mr. Winters. Not Pictured: V.P., M. Vesper; Sec., K. No land.

11th grade Officers: Sponser, Mrs. Wilson; Pres., C. Wilson; Treas., B. Kuzniar; Sec., K. LaBram; V. Pres., J. Longenecker.

SPIRIT BOOSTERS

The Pom Pon girls and the Pep Band provided a lot of enthusiasm to help boost spirit at games. Both groups practiced hard to master dance routines or new songs. Their efforts were appreciated by both fans and players.

Front Row: M. Nakamura (on the set), Mr. L. Daugherty. Second Row: L. Powell, S. Millen, J. Knoedler, C. Kellison, K. Winters, J. Vaughan. Third Row: B. Philipp, V. Spicer, D. Schumann, T. Wilson, T. Hardesty, G. VanAmburg. Fourth Row: T. Dunlap, J. Evans, S. Rutledge, C. Spiegelburg, C. Carter, L. Lavistida. Back Row: C. Fisher, S. Wilson, J. Hockman, L. Dunlap, L. Schauer.

MUSIC IS A WORLD WITHIN ITSELF

Clubs Provide Opportunities For Cultural Experiences

Drama Club. Front Row: S. Evans, L. Hopkins, G. Van-Amburg, J. Wagner. Second Row: K. Coval, L. Lavastida, H. Ball, I. Lefstad, N. Shishkoff, J. Clay, P. Can-

talupo. Third Row: M. Fishmann, B. Wagner, E. Baker, M. Nakamura, L. Powell, A. Farren, D. Mashni, Mrs. Hughes.

The Drama and French Clubs are available to students who are particularly interested in these areas. The students meet with others sharing this interest and plan activities. Fund raising projects are planned to help fund the activities. This year's Drama Club was kept busy going to various plays at the Power Center in Ann Arbor and at Eastern Michigan U. Club members also helped technically with the school play and acting class productions. The French Club sold Trojan buttons and peanut butter cups to raise money which was originally intended to help members pay for a trip to Quebec. However, when not enough students signed up, part of the money was used for a meal at the Chez Crepe restaurant in Ann Arbor. Above and Above Right: French Club members and interested guests in front of Chez Crepe and seated inside waiting to be served.

THE GREAT OUTDOORS

To be outside and surrounded by nature is some people's greatest desire. The Ski Club and Outdoors Club help students relate to Mother Nature in different ways. Ski Club members share an interest in the sport and try to arrange excursions to area ski slopes. Outdoors Club members are interested in nature in a broader sense. While sharing an interest in learning about and protecting the ecology and environment, students also get some exercise in the fresh air. This year one of the club's activities was a canoe trip on the Huron River.

Outdoors Club. Front Row: B.Orr, C. Spiegelberg, L. Klecker, Mr. Bender, D. Dean, H. Ball. Back Row:

L. Dunlap, S. Wilson, I. Lefstad, C. Verardi, M. Schunk, J. Hockman.

Selection to the Junior (8th and 9th) or Senior National Honor Society is based first of all on grades. However, in addition to the high grade point necessary to qualify, students must also excel in leadership, service, attitude, and participation in activities. Both groups conducted fund raising activities such as bake sales, raffles, and selling products. Some of the money raised was used in the annual project of providing Christmas baskets to the needy. They also donated money to a scholarship fund. Other activities this year included a magic show and cartoons sponsored by the Senior group and a trip to Cedar Point by the Junior Honor Society. Middle Left: New members are inducted into the Senior Honor Society at the Honors Assembly by President Kay Coval. Middle Right: New Honor Society members and their parents were treated to a reception after the Honors Assembly.

The Library assistants provide a lot of services to students that they may be unaware of. In addition to being at the counter to check out books, assistants also must perform a number of tasks to ensure that books are available to students. They help inventory and mark new books, put cards in the card catalog, keep books shelved in the right order, check on overdue books, and do some housekeeping to keep the library attractive. They also assist with the audio visual equipment used in the classrooms. Without these assistants, students would not find the library as pleasant and as easy to use.

Library Assistants. Front Row: D. Potter, C. Ball, Mrs. Saalbach, G. Bourland, B. Vibbert. Second Row: L. Goring, C. Little, T. Protske. Third Row: D. Catton, B. Lefstad, T. Shinn. Back: D. Arbogast.

Cross-age tutors provide help in a more direct one to one way. Each tutor is assigned to one or two students in one classroom for one hour a day. These students being helped are either those who need extra help in a subject or who are doing advanced work. As a group, they visited High Point, the regional center for students with special needs and the O'Brien Center at Juvenile Court. These visits helped acquaint them with teaching methods used with special students. Both groups receive credit for their work, but more importantly, they obtain satisfaction from helping others.

Cross-age Tutors. Front Row: J. Spencer, Mrs. Lampert, L. Klecker, M. Avey. Second Row: B. Skinner, J. Haas, L. Dreffs, S. Milten, M. Fischmann, C. Kline. Third Row: B. Vibbert, M. Hogan, K. Byrd, J. STUDENT GROUPS WORK TO HELP OTHERS

Student Council members met regularly to plan activities and discuss school problems. One of the first responsibilities of the Council was Homecoming. The other annual activity organized by Student Council was the Christmas Assembly.

This year's Council did not limit itself to the traditional in-school meetings and annual activities. Members attended other area Student Council meetings to get new ideas. They also arranged for a representative at School Board meetings. Enjoyable new Council activities were the Donkey Basketball game and class tournaments. This year the Council initiated a Senior Control Day. Although not completed during the school year, the Council obtained approval and ordered furniture for a student lounge.

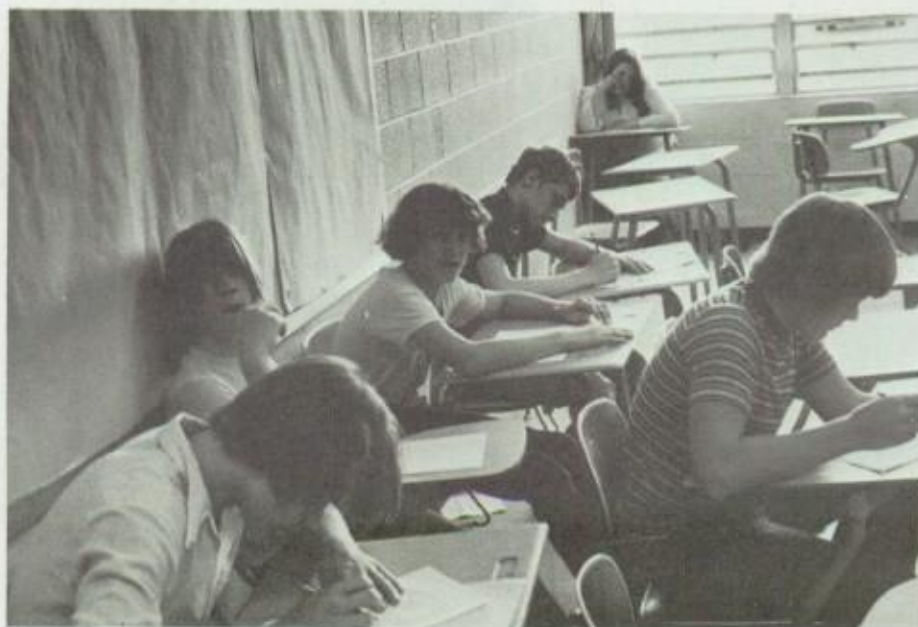

ACADEMICS

ENGLISH IS MORE THAN JUST GRAMMAR

The word English stands for more than just grammar and punctuation. It represents drama, language, literature, speech, and writing. Students who find English stimulating can further their studies through courses in Acting, Honors, English, Adv. Drama, Creative Writing, Novels, Am. Literature, Study and Testing Skills, Forensics, Journalism and Reading. Far Right: Mrs. Hughes puts the finishing touches on Marie Fischmann's make-up for a drama class presentation. Right: Mr. Robinson listens to a student's comments. Below: Mrs. Klump's class works on an assignment. Bottom: Honors English students concentrate on a vocabulary test.

LANGUAGE STUDENTS EXPERIENCE CUSTOMS

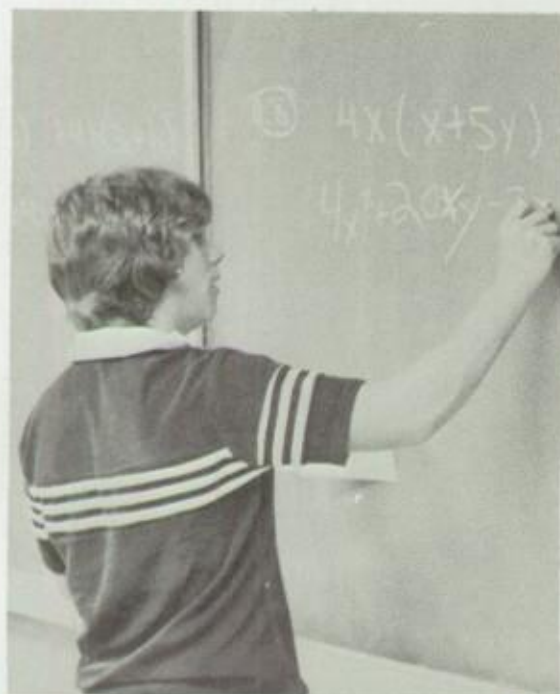

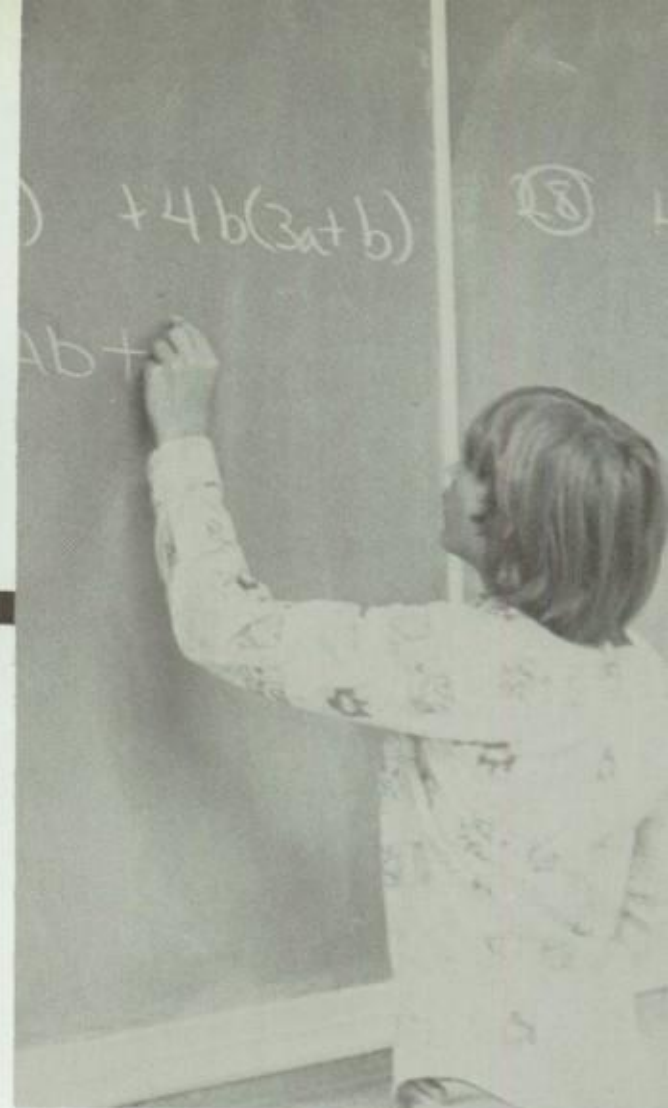

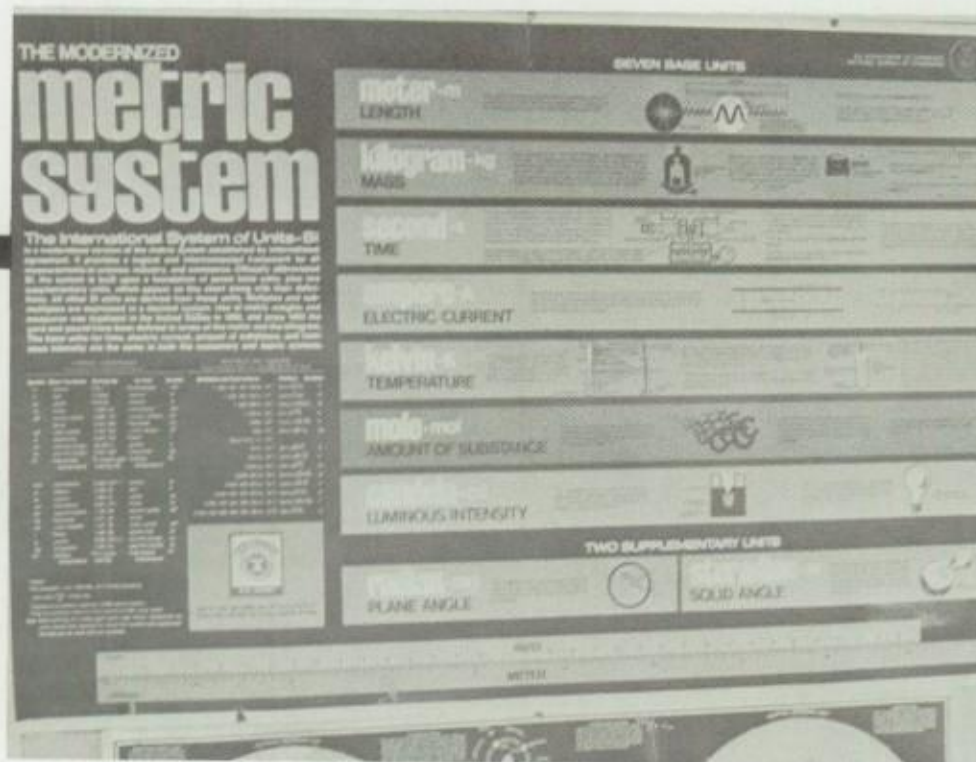

Although not counted as an English credit, French is very much related to English as students learn reading, writing, grammar, and speaking skills. In addition, French students learn about the culture and history of French-speaking countries. Major holidays provide an opportunity to get away from the books and have a little fun. At Christmas, students learn carols in French and discuss food and celebration customs. At Easter, they celebrate the way young French children do. Students bring in decorated eggs to be judged. Then there is an egg roll around the room—the object to be the fastest without cracking the egg. Left: First year students participated in an Easter egg toss. Gathered in a tight circle, they throw the eggs as high as possible, trying to catch their own. French students this year also learned about French food. First year students made French restaurant menus, and both classes made crepe main dishes and desserts in class. Below Right: Gordon VanAmburg cooks his crepe. Bottom: Jill Wagner, Marie Fischmann and Jan Braun fill the cooked crepes with filling and roll them before adding topping and baking.

MATHEMATICS

MORE THAN JUST $2 + 2$

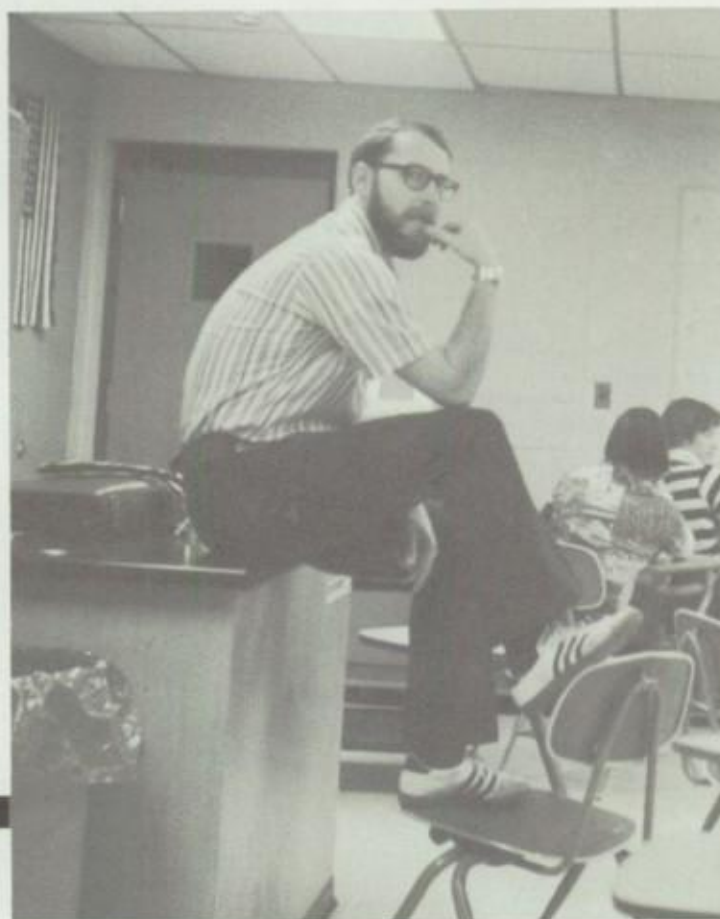

Mathematics plays a vital role in everyday life, and because of this WLHS offers various classes in Algebra I & II, Geometry, and advanced Math to ready students for their future careers.

LAB ADDS NEW ADVENTURES

To add variety to the science department, class time was stressed more on lab than on books and blackboards. Students dissected such animals as cats, pigs, squid, and sharks.

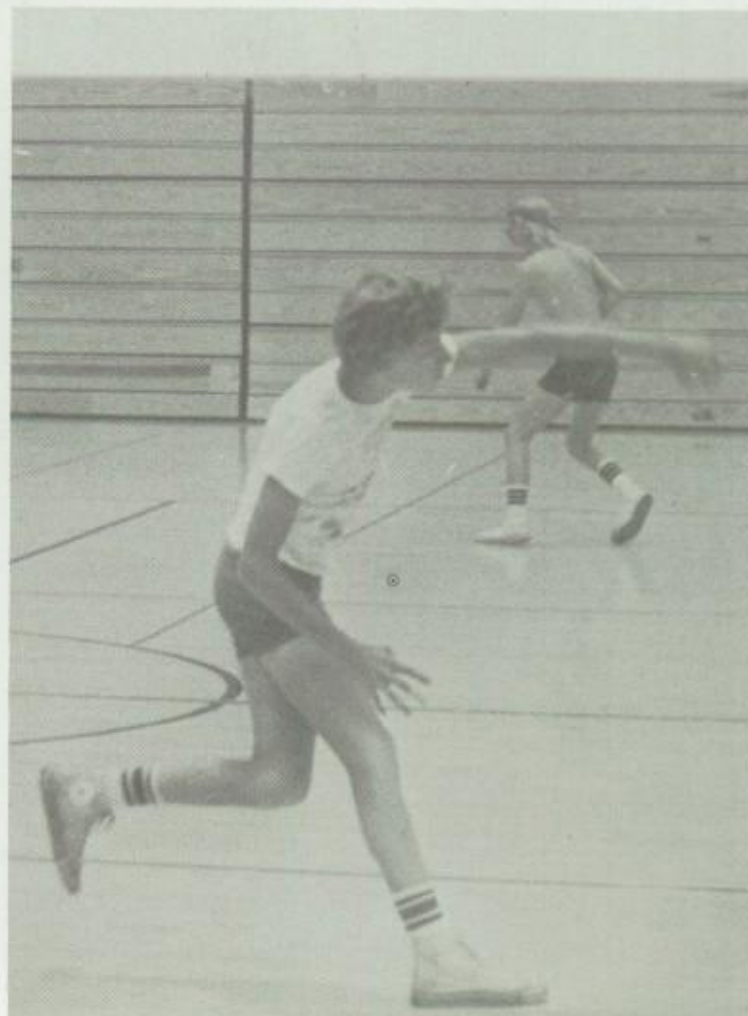

PHYSICAL FITNESS IS A NATURAL

Gym, First Aid, Health: these three classes are related by physical fitness and the importance of good health and safety precautions. To save lives, keep fit, and learn sports techniques are a few of the goals of these classes.

First Aid knowledge is tested by instructor Ms. Martin by practical application. Students are presented with staged emergencies to which they must respond with the correct procedures. They practice treating broken legs, fractures, heart attacks, shock, and many other dilemmas.

In addition to the usual activities such as basketball, tennis, soccer, etc., the gym classes had the opportunity to work with excellent body building equipment such as the modern weight machine. Another change from the usual were co-ed gym classes as an elective. Mr. Pritchett, new to WLHS this year, joined Ms. Martin as an instructor in this area.

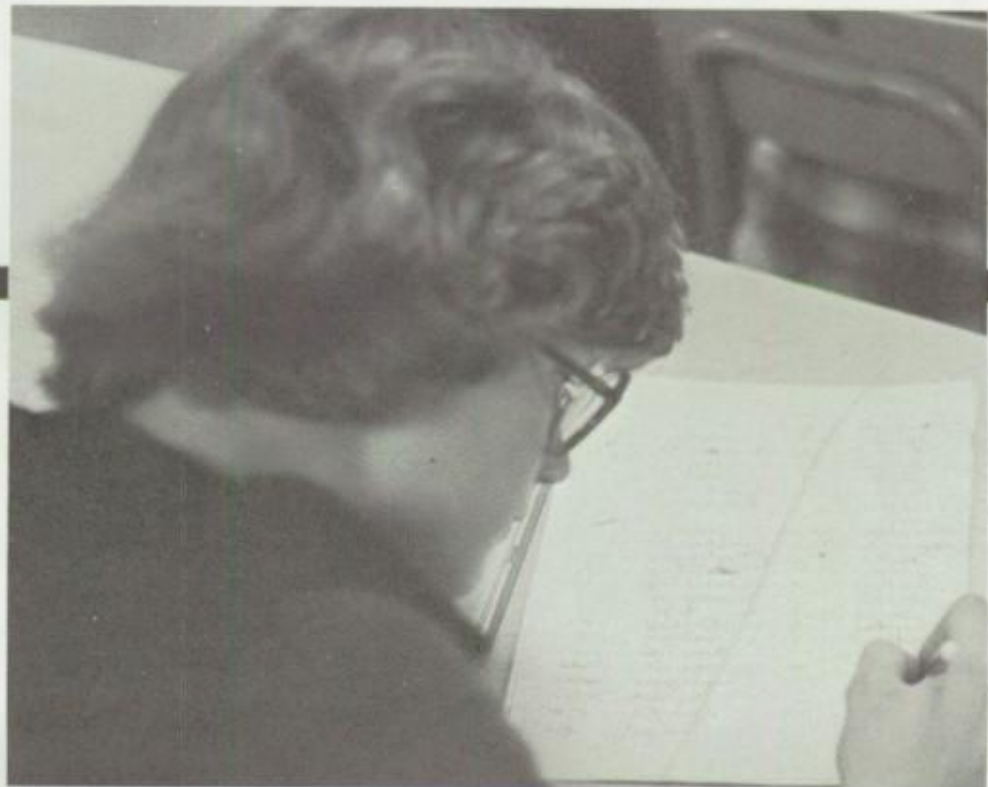

To ready students for the fast-expanding business world, the vocational block class, two hour period, enabled students to learn about the use of the reproduction machines. Typewriters, dictaphones, mimeographs, dittos, timings, all of these aided students in learning business as a career. Other classes available in the business area were Typing I & II, Shorthand, Office machines, Business English, and Business Math.

HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS BY REALLY TRYING

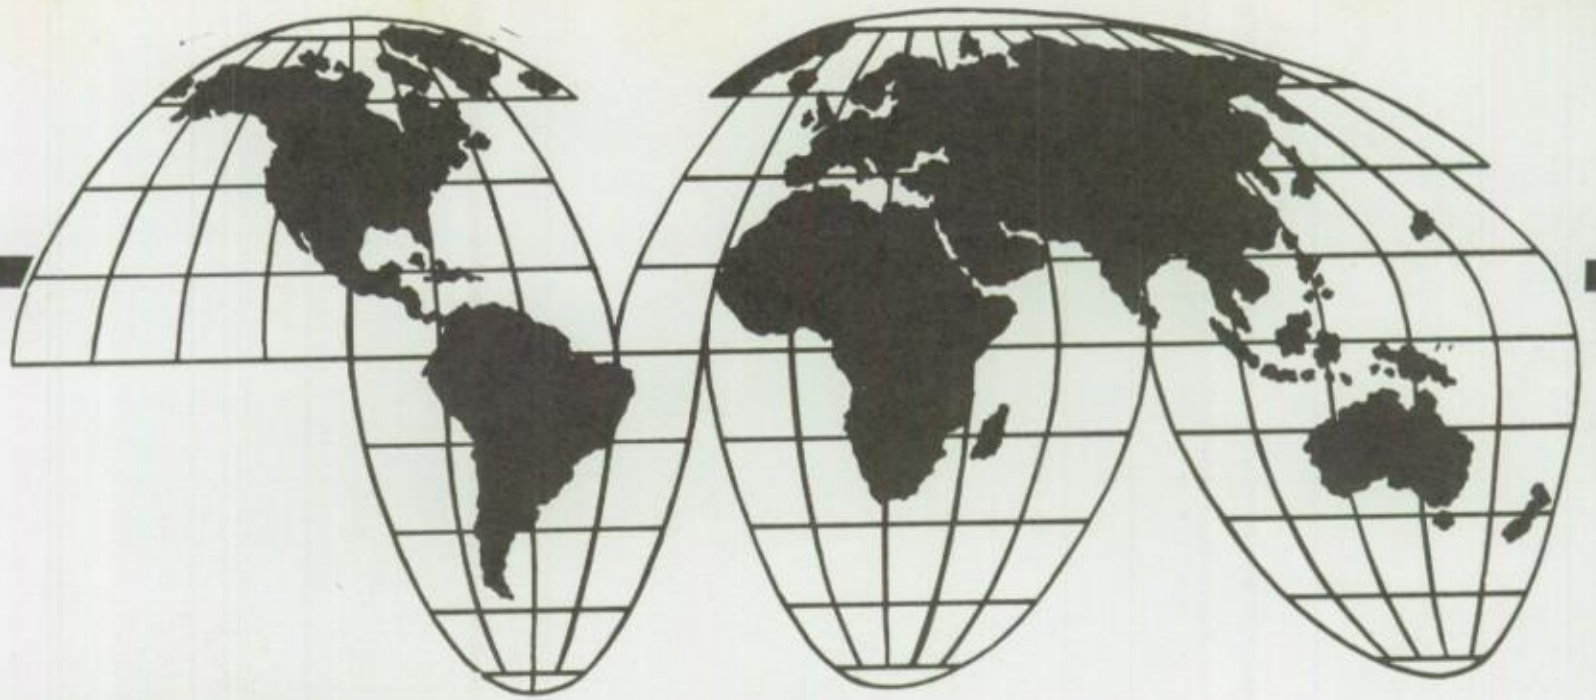

A TIME TO DISCOVER

Home Ec. class is a time to learn about life, love and yourself. How do you bake a cake? How long should the meat cook? Why does she cry? These questions and many more are asked and answered. It's a time to learn to sew, macrame, bake fancy-face cakes, and basic interior decorating and even refinishing furniture. The past year had two student teachers along with the regular teacher, Mrs. Marsha Ewartt they were Miss Aniol and Miss Guillaume.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Social Studies classes included Government, Economics, American, World and 8th grade History. In addition to learning about world and national events and problems, students in these classes experienced setting up realistic budgets, preparing income tax forms, and participating in mock conventions, elections, and political situations. Seniors were taken to view a trial and to Lansing to tour the Capitol Building. Mr. Winters held a map puzzle contest for his 8th graders. Middle Left: Prizes were provided by the print shop and local merchants. Middle Right: A contestant hurries to finish with the best time. Above: Mrs. Ressler sits in front of a bulletin board depicting Great Women in History.

ART: BEAUTY, UTILITY AND AN EXPRESSION OF SELF

The art program offered students a wide range of instruction from basic design and lettering techniques used in making posters to more creative projects such as jewelry, crafts like macrame, rug hooking and needlepoint, sculpture, and painting. Many of the finished products were displayed at the Spring Arts Festival. Below: Students and teachers get a preview during lunch.

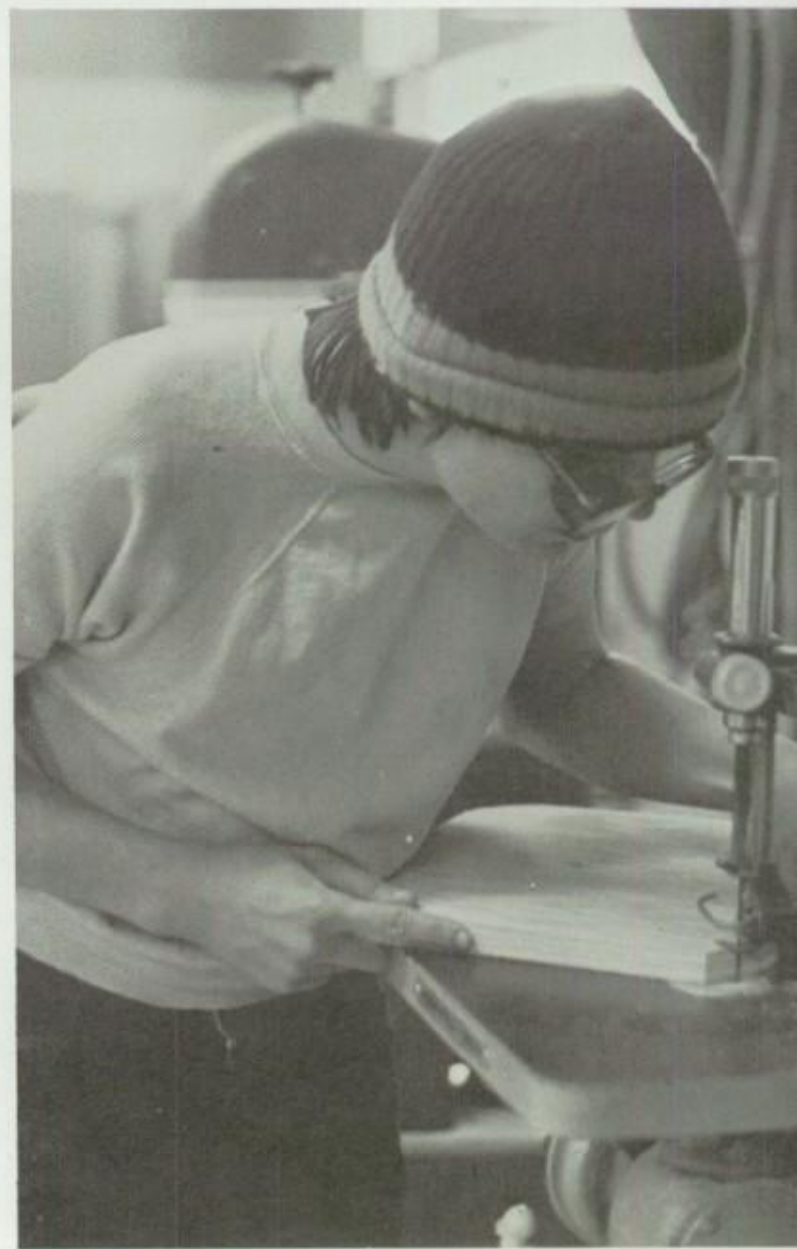

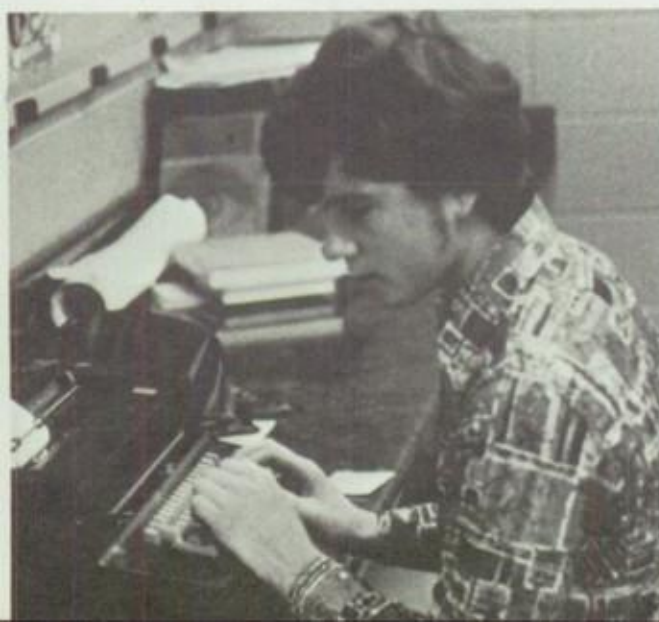

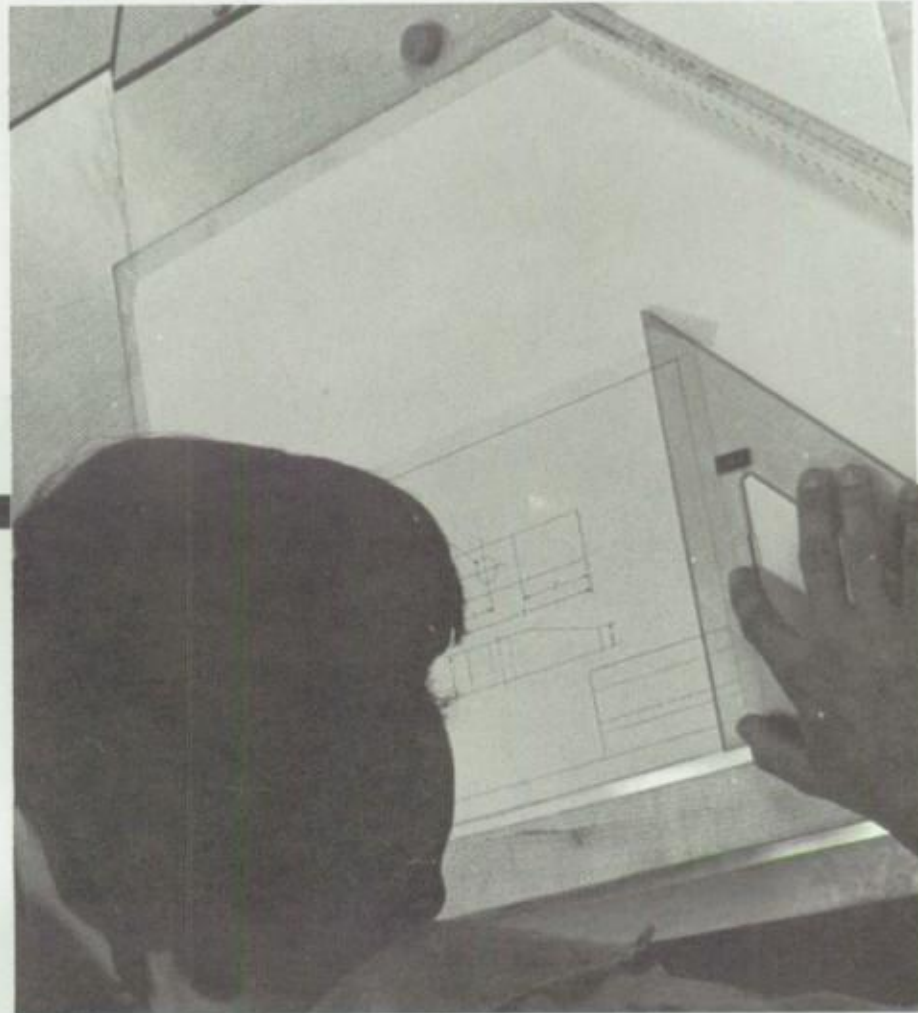

LEARNING A TRADE

"The class is doing fine. They're shaping up and becoming some really fine workers," states Mr. Smiarowski, this year's teacher for Woods, and Building Trades. The students are mainly beginners, but a few are advanced. Next year the students will start making projects for the state industrial fair.

Mr. McMillan, the auto shop teacher, remarks, "We want the students to act as though the class is a dealership. We have the students bring in their own cars and work on them during classtime. This helps them to decide whether they desire to be a mechanic or not." The classes are divided into Basic and Advanced. Students can start with just basic mechanics and slowly progress to Advanced Mechanics by using test equipment.

"For a school the size of Whitmore Lake, the graphic arts facility here is one of the best in the state," comments Mr. Meyer.

This is the second year that a program in graphic arts has been offered. It has been accepted quite readily and enthusiastically by the students, staff and the community. Students are taken from the very basics through a production type situation in which jobs from outside the school are taken in for printing. This in turn makes the students' skills more valuable in the job market.

In addition to printing, students learn techniques of silk screening (by which they produce some unique T shirts) and photography. Students may also take Drafting to increase their vocational skills.

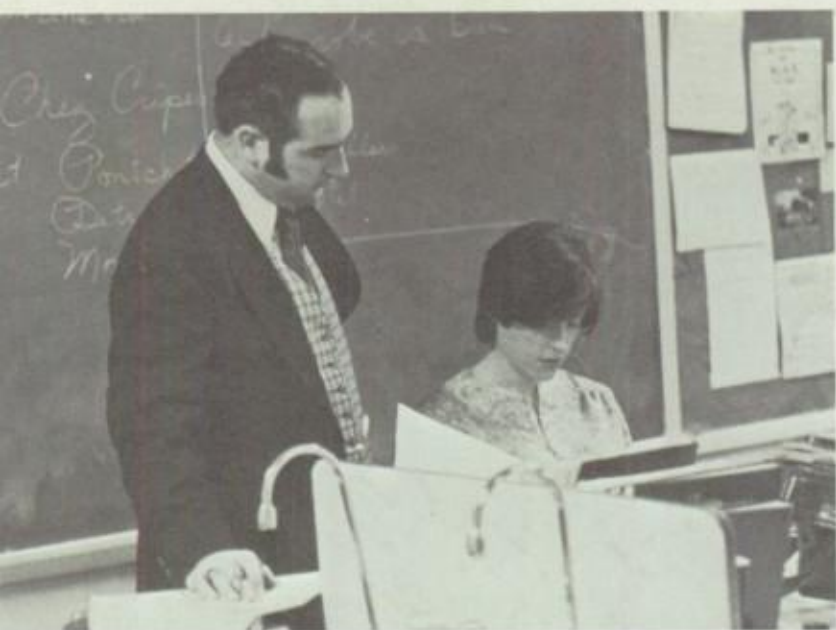

TROJOURNAL STAFF WELCOMES NEW TEACHER

The school paper class was advised by a new face this year. Mr. Robinson, a teacher from Ann Arbor, replaced Mrs. Kling in January. The staff distributed the school newspaper every month. The paper contains school and community news, sports, and features. Students who have taken journalism may then take school paper class. Besides writing the stories, the staff is also responsible for page layout, typesetting, proofreading, sales, and distribution of the paper. Top and Bottom: Staff members cut out and paste up typeset material to get ready to go to press. Right of staff picture: The staff presents a skit at the Christmas assembly. Above Right: Ms. Kling works with staff first semester.

YEARBOOK-INEXPERIENCED BUT DILIGENT

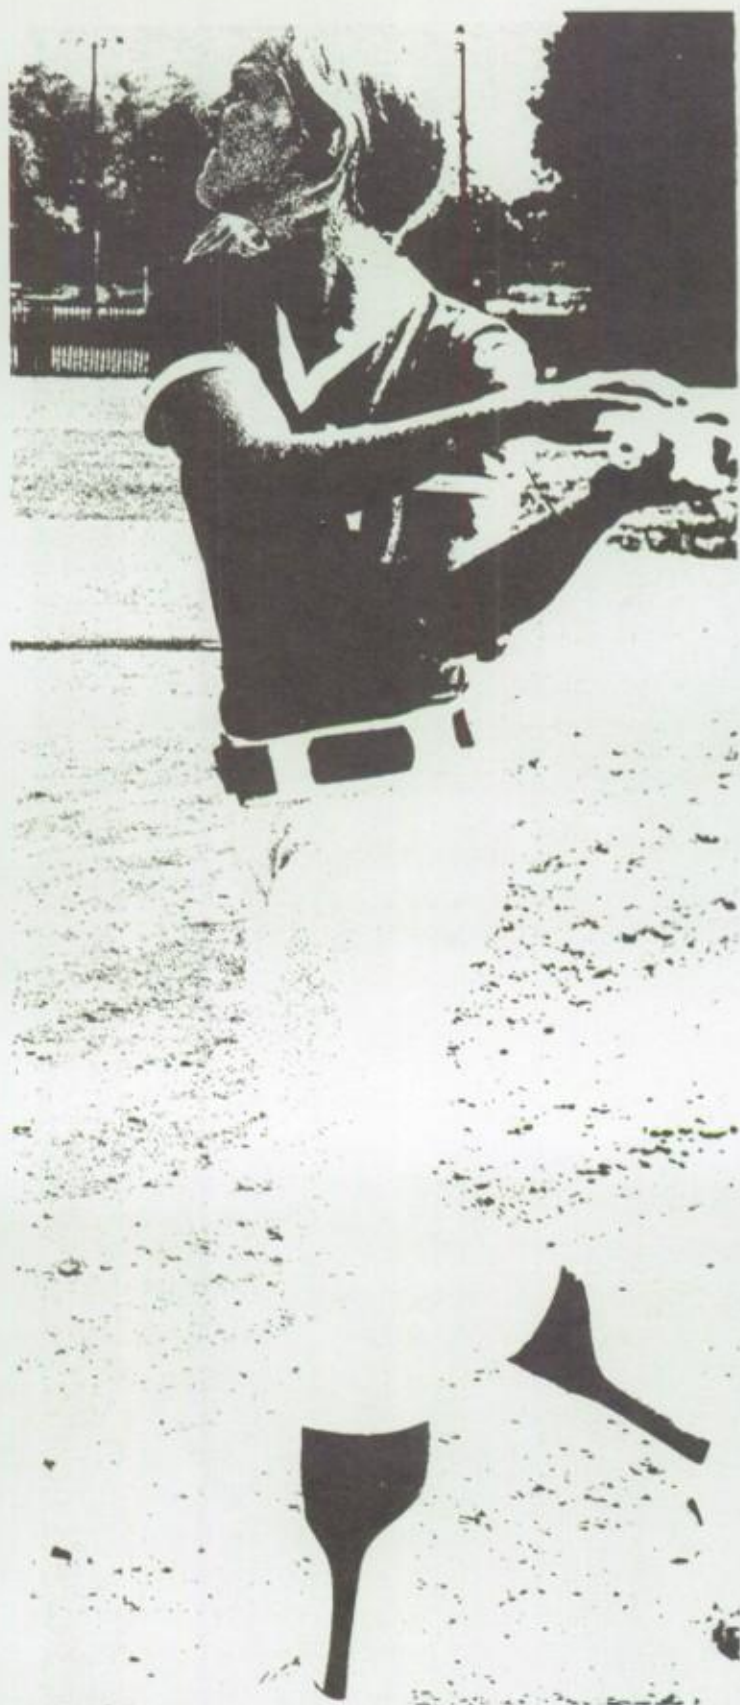

Memories, pictures, poetry on paper: These are the main elements of a yearbook. The task of a yearbook class is to combine them to show the special students and events of a given year. This year's staff was totally inexperienced, but worked hard to grasp new things such as layouts, writing copy, and cropping pictures. Left: Mr. Lyndon, the publisher's representative, and Mrs. Arnold check the printer's proofs. Below: Cheryl Brandt receives the Yearbook Award at the Honors Assembly.

VICTORIOUS

For the 1976 girls varsity basketball team it was not just a record-breaking season, it was the finest season in the history of Whitmore Lake Basketball. This highly disciplined and highly skilled team had many people around the state watching as they claimed the Tri County Conference Champions and the MHSAA Class D District Championship. The excitement these girls generated can be seen in many of the records they set; records such as a 20 and 2 season win loss record, an 84 point single game high, a season high of 1,279 points, a season high 931 rebounds, and the best tournament showing of any WLHS basketball team.

This fine group of girls is the most well-rounded and the best balanced team ever to represent Whitmore Lake on the court. It contained three all-conference selections with Jo Longanecker on first team, Jill Longanecker on second team and Terry Watkins an honorable mention; and four all-area selections with Jo Longanecker on first team, Terry Watkins on second team, and Liz Frobels and Jill Longanecker with honorable mention. Co-captains of this historical team are Seniors Paula Hoeft and Jo Longanecker.

M. Martin (coach), C. Hamilton, B. Striz, P. Hoeft, T. Watkins, K. Winters, Jo Longanecker, S. Richmond, Jill Longanecker, E. Frobels.

J.V. SHOWS

This year Blood, Sweat, and Cheers were the key factors that were displayed on the field by the football team, along with hard practices and a desire to win. The J.V. and Varsity football players showed real zest. Left: players line up for the Letters Assembly. Each player that played $\frac{1}{3}$ of the number of quarters in the total season received an award. Top left: Trojans Weidman, Ruttinger, Protske, and Richmond get in position for defensive play. Above: Varsity Coach Housner discusses plays with the athletic director Mr. Schuster. Center: Coach Davidson and Manning study the opponents' strategy. Right: Varsity players rough it up at practice. Far right: Coach Henry works out with the J.V. team.

Mr. Henry, Coach of the Varsity Basketball team, claims this year's season was one of exciting, close games, if not winning games. The 1976 season started slowly but managed fairly well toward the end. The team played well defensively and their shooting steadily improved throughout the rest of the season.

The highlight of the season was the team winning 5 games in a row and knocking off 2 league leading teams. Because of this winning streak, and in order to keep his promise, Coach Henry shaved off his prized moustache.

Coach Henry found that the team played much better at home games than away. This was proven as fact when the team won their last 7 home games.

JUNIOR VARSITY: TOP SCORERS

The 1976-77 JV Basketball team finished the season with a 17-3 record overall and a conference championship with an 11-1 record.

This JV squad had the best record of any JV team ever to play Basketball at Whitmore Lake High School. Hopefully a couple of these players will carry the wins from JV on to the Varsity squad next year.

WINNING SEASON A BREEZE

With a 5-1 league play and a 7-6 overall record, Coach Bender feels the J.V. Volleyball squad is learning fast and playing well as a team. With many potential varsity members for next year, the team is moving onward and upward.

HIT AND RUN

Whitmore Lake baseball team finished the year with overall 6-10 and a 6-6 in the Tri-county Conference. The 6-6 record in the Tri-county gave us a 3rd place finish in the conference which is the highest ever in the Tri-county for Whitmore Lake.

This year's team also set records with the highest team batting ave. (.320), most stolen bases with 81, fewest errors in one season (55), best fielding ave. (.750), most runs in one year (125 runs).

The team's leading offensive player was Bob Knoedler with a batting ave. of .509. Most home runs 2, most RBI's 15, most stolen bases 14.

GIRLS SOFTBALL RATES HIGH

"It was a really fine season, especially since 3 of our starting infielders were freshmen, and 2 other infielders were playing new positions," remarked Ms. Martin, the softball coach, who talks highly of her team. "I was proud to have coached a very dedicated group of athletes who became as a team of state caliber competition in one season."

The team set a school record for wins with a 22-2 record. Their league record was 10-0 to give them their third consecutive undefeated Tri-County Conference Championship. They won the MHSAA Class C District Championship. They were stopped in their bid for the state title by a 2-3 loss in 11 innings to Dewitt in the Regional semi-finals.

The team overpowered most of its opponents to finish the season with these totals: 10 shut outs, 11 five inning games, 244 hits,

Although there were many fine players on the team, special mention must be given to pitcher Jo Longanecker whose progress on the mound caught the attention of many sports writers and college recruiters. Jo finished her brilliant career at WL with these season totals: 21-2 record, 242 strike outs, .24 ERA. Her career record was 52-7. As the season closed, Jo signed a letter of intent to accept an athletic scholarship to the University of Michigan.

TRACK MEMBER BREAKS SCHOOL RECORD

The highlight of the '77 track season was the breaking of a school record that never existed. Mike Santure set the school record with a 43.9 finish in the 330 low hurdles.

Placing last in the league meet, the Trojans still earned some wins. Tom Madhouse, the only senior on the team, placed 5th in the high hurdles. Jim Rutledge was best in the league by placing 2nd in the 440. Bill Wagner placed 4th in the 880, and Frank Calhoun came in 5th in the 100 yard dash. The relay team placed 4th and the 880 relay team placed 3rd in the league.

JR. HIGH TRACK:

"It was a small team, but we had a number of good individuals," remarked Steve Robinson, this year's 7th and 8th grade track coach. "As a result, we lacked the depth that some of the other schools had, and it hurt us."

Steve Robinson, a new English/Journalism teacher at WLHS, coached the team to a 7-3 won-lost record. The team also competed at the League Meet at Whiteford where they placed 4th out of 6 area schools.

"The most rewarding experience of the season," commented Mr. Robinson, "was when the team presented me with a coaching trophy they had purchased themselves. That was nice. I'll never forget that."

SPORTS BANQUET HONORS ATHLETES

Many students devote a lot of time and effort throughout the school year and even during the summer to athletics. The Sports Banquet took time out at the end of the year to recognize and award students' efforts and achievements. Most of the planning, preparation and clean up for the banquet was done by volunteers from the Dads Club (many of them Moms) which also provided funds for some awards. The banquet was well attended by athletes, their families, teachers, and other interested students and community members.
